We have an exciting opportunity for a dynamic, highly motivated and high-quality Higher Level Teaching Assistant to join our team as we continue to move forward under new leadership.

Thorp Primary School

We are a 'Good' school with a one-form entry primary and nursery school positioned at the heart of our community. We are part of the Oak Trust for Inspirational Leader and Leadership, which creates an all-through MAT from 3 – 18 years.

We are looking to appoint someone who is:

- A highly motivated, hardworking and committed Teaching Assistant to enhance our school team.
- You will hold the Higher-Level Teaching Assistant certificate or equivalent.
- You will have the ability to plan, prepare and deliver specified learning to small groups and classes
- You will have the ability to assess, record and report on development, progress and attainment
- Candidates should have a good understanding of current educational issues and ideally have experience of working within both key stages.

What we will offer you:

- We can offer you the opportunity to work in a welcoming and supportive environment with dedicated staff and enthusiastic and friendly children.
- An opportunity to work in an Academy with a supportive and committed team and leadership
